

1. Underline the dependent clauses from the following sentences and write down if each clause is noun, adjective or adverb clause.

- b) The girl who helped me yesterday is very kind.
- c) Because he was late, he missed the beginning of the lecture.
- d) This is the book that I borrowed from the library yesterday.
- e) It is a matter of concern that people nowadays are getting sick easily.
- f) This is the very place where we were hijacked last night.
- g) They stayed inside because the storm was getting worse.
- h) I believe that honesty is the best policy.
- i) Wherever you go, you will find some form of culture.
- j) The last time I visited Sylhet, I was in college.
- k) Everyone is asking why Aisha and her sister left early.
- l) The confidential file you are asking for is kept in the second-last drawer.
- m) She explained how the machine works in detail.
- n) Since it was raining heavily, the match was cancelled.
- o) Do you remember the place where we first met?
- p) What he said during the meeting surprised everyone.

2. Fill in the blanks with appropriate modal auxiliary verbs following the instructions in brackets.

- a) You _____ worry about the meeting; everything is ready. (lack of necessity)
- b) Students _____ submit their assignments by Friday. (necessity)
- c) You _____ see a doctor if you feel unwell. (advisability)
- d) Martha _____ finished the report already; she started very early. (certainty)
- e) Robin _____ have left his keys at home; I saw him take them. (possibility)
- f) My mother says, "I _____ have complex carbs than tea in the morning". (preference)
- g) When we were children, we _____ play outside every evening. (past habit)

- h) We _____ keep electric wires within a toddler's reach; it's dangerous. (prohibition)
- i) Look at the sky! It seems, it _____ rain anytime, but it may not happen too. (possibility)
- j) As it's Ruhi's birthday, I _____ arrange a surprise birthday party for her. (announcement)
- k) You _____ bring an umbrella; it looks like rain. (advisability)
- l) Visitors _____ enter the laboratory without permission. (prohibition)
- m) She _____ be at home; the lights are on and her car is outside. (certainty)
- n) We _____ complete the project before the deadline. (necessity)
- o) I _____ rather stay at home than go out tonight. (preference)
- p) They _____ have missed the bus because they left home late. (possibility)
- q) My grandfather _____ walk five kilometres to school every day when he was young. (past habit)
- r) You _____ pay for the ticket; admission is free today. (lack of necessity)
- s) I _____ help you with your presentation tomorrow. (announcement)
- t) The students _____ be tired after studying for six hours. (possibility)

3. Fill in both blanks using the correct form of the verbs in parentheses.

- a) It is a basic scientific fact that metals expand when heated. If you _____ (heat) a metal, it _____ (expand).
- b) Tisha wants to start a new business. But she does not have enough money. If she _____ (be) enough capital, she _____ (start) it right away.
- c) If I _____ (know) how to swim, I _____ (feel) safe in deep water.
- d) She misunderstood her friend and they argued. If she _____ (listen) carefully, she _____ (avoid) the misunderstanding.
- e) If you _____ (mix) blue and yellow, you _____ (get) green.
- f) Last week, I forgot my wallet at home. If I _____ (remember) to take it, I _____ (buy) lunch at the café.

- g) If Rafi _____ (study) harder, he _____ (pass) the examination next month.
- h) If people _____ (not drink) enough water, they _____ (become) dehydrated.
- i) If I _____ (have) more free time, I _____ (learn) another language.
- j) If they _____ (leave) earlier yesterday, they _____ (catch) the train.
- k) If you _____ (follow) the instructions carefully, you _____ (avoid) the mistake.
- l) If the weather _____ (be) sunny tomorrow, we _____ (go) to the park.
- m) If she _____ (not forget) her umbrella yesterday, she _____ (not get) wet.
- n) If water _____ (reach) 100°C, it _____ (boil).
- o) If I _____ (be) you, I _____ (accept) the opportunity.

4. Combine the following sentences using the instructions given in brackets.

- a) The author wrote a bestseller. She visited our university. (relative pronoun)
- b) Do you want to go for a walk? The rain has stopped. (now that)
- c) She was tired. She continued working on the project. (although)
- d) He speaks English fluently. He speaks French fluently. (both...and)
- e) I switched off the lights. Everyone left the room. (as soon as)
- f) The students completed their assignment. They submitted it before the deadline. (after)
- g) I'll go swimming tomorrow. It's cold. (unless)
- h) Some women do not earn equal pay for equal work. It is really disappointing. (that)
- i) The coach was not satisfied with the performance. The players were also not satisfied with the performance. (neither...nor)
- j) She studied hard for the examination. She wanted to get a good grade. (so that)
- k) I stood up to give my speech. I got butterflies in my stomach. (just before)
- l) The man lives next door. He is a famous novelist. (who)
- m) Orange is high in vitamin C. Strawberry is high in vitamin C. Lemon is high in vitamin C. (and)
- n) He missed the bus. He arrived late for class. (because)
- o) I met a scientist. Her research on climate change has received international recognition. (whose)

- p) The movie had already started. We entered the cinema. (when)
- q) She was feeling unwell. She attended the meeting. (despite)
- r) You can take the train. You can take the bus. Both will take you to the city centre. (either...or)
- s) The weather was extremely hot. We decided to stay indoors. (therefore)
- t) The manager praised the employee. The employee had completed the project ahead of schedule. (who)

5. Write the synonym and antonym of the bolded words from the following passages:

Passage 1

The students found the examination difficult, but they worked hard to complete it. Some students answered the questions quickly, while others worked at a more leisurely pace. When the examination finally came to an end, the teacher asked everyone to check their answers carefully. She was happy to assist students who had questions, but she could not provide the answers. After the papers were collected, the students felt cheerful and relaxed.

Passage 2

The children were joyful when they heard that the school trip would take place the following week. Their teacher was glad to see their excitement and asked them to begin preparing for the trip immediately. A large bus would take them to the museum, and the students were told to walk slowly inside the exhibition halls. The guide promised to assist anyone who needed help.

Passage 3

The city library had recently reopened after several months of renovation. Although the building looked ugly from the outside, the inside was clean and attractive. A friendly and polite librarian welcomed the visitors and humbly asked them to follow the new library rules. She spoke fast because many students were waiting, but she was careful to make every instruction clear. One bright student asked an important question about borrowing books and received a detailed answer. Since the library was still relatively empty, the students were able to study peacefully.

Passage 4

Rina felt miserable after losing her favourite book. Her brother tried to make her happy by offering to buy her a new one. He quickly searched several shops and finally found a tiny bookstore near their house. The owner was cheerful and patiently answered Rina's questions. She was so pleased that she forgot her earlier sadness.

Passage 5

The university decided to commence a new environmental programme. A huge group of students joined the first meeting, and the organizers asked them to speak about their ideas. One student suggested that the university should create more green spaces, while another asked how they could reduce plastic waste. The coordinator carefully observed their suggestions and promised to consider each one.